Federal-Mogul Corporation Receives 2008 Supplier of the Year Award from General Motors Corp.

SOUTHFIELD, Mich., June 9, 2009....Federal-Mogul Corporation (NASDAQ:FDML) received the prestigious 2008 Supplier of the Year Award from General Motors Corporation based on performance in the areas of quality, service, technology and price.

Federal-Mogul President and Chief Executive Officer José Maria Alapont accepted the award from Bo Andersson, GM group vice president, Global Purchasing and Supply Chain, during a presentation held last week at the GM Heritage Center in Warren, Michigan.

“GM is proud to honor our best suppliers with the Supplier of the Year award, an award that we believe is the most meaningful honor in the supplier industry,” said Andersson. “During these difficult economic times, it's more important than ever to recognize performance in our supply base.”

The award recognizes the significant contributions of GM's suppliers in 2008 as part of the company's global product and performance achievements. The Supplier of the Year program started in 1992, and each year a global team of purchasing, engineering, quality, manufacturing and logistics executives determines the winners. Federal-Mogul has received GM's Supplier of the Year award several times since the program's inception in 1992.

“We are proud and honored once again to receive this coveted award from General Motors,” Alapont said. “This award demonstrates Federal-Mogul's commitment to provide vehicle makers such as GM with innovative leading products and services that offer quality excellence at a superior value.”
